

Safeguarding children: RSB Workshops & Holiday Camps

Centre Name: Reigate Community Centre

Purpose

To ensure the safety and security of all students & staff at the school, by providing clear instructions on how to respond in the event of any hostility by persons known or unknown. This policy applies to all adults and children at the premises.

Premises

- Reigate Community Centre has a full time receptionist to monitor people traffic through the centre. RSB staff have full pupil names and parents' contact numbers in case of emergencies, with high staff to pupil ratios.
- Designated Safeguarding Leader: Emma Benjamin or Jo Evans
- Children are never unattended at the premises - RSB teachers always present

Policy

- Hostile Assessment
 - Any adult who identifies a hostile person or persons, should assess the situation quickly and determine the immediate threat level without approaching the hostile person.
 - Any child who identifies a hostile person or persons should immediately let any RSB teacher or Reigate Community Centre (RCC) staff know.
- Alert Authorities
 - Teachers and RCC staff Immediately call emergency services (police) by dialling 999.
 - Providing the dispatcher with the following information:
 - Your name and location:
